Army Aviation Magazine is proud to present the winners of our second annual photography contest. Twenty-seven AAAA members, submitting a total of 44 photos, competed with Army aviation related photographs taken during the 2006 calendar year. We congratulate the winners and thank all of the contestants for their efforts and service. We invite all AAAA members to participate in our 2007 contest. Visit the AAAA website for details and submission requirements.

Bill Harris Publisher

WARNING: All photographs are the property of the owner and are copyrighted.

Downloading of the photographs for private or public use is prohibited. Copying and use of any photograph requires the advance written permission of the owner and ARMY AVIATION Publications, Inc. Violators will be prosecuted.

Click Any Image to Enlarge

Full Size Image

1st Place - "Night Ops Sherpa" by CW4 David D. Guffy

D Company of the 126th AVN Regt (RI, IN and PA), Indiana Army National Guard, Shelbyville, Ind. Dec.

A C-23 Sherpa from Co.  vn. Regt., Mississippi ARNG, awaits her crew for another night missio

---

2nd Place - "After 9" by PFC Michael A Nowak

Co. C, 3rd Bn., 25th Avn. Regt., Forward Operating Base Sykes, Iraq

Mid-January 2006, Fort Irwin, Calif.

A "first up" UH-60 medica ion helicopter launches into a setting sun on another simulated missio

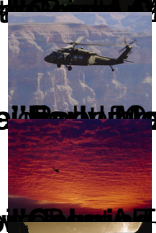
---

3rd Place - "Big Duke" by CPT Frank Tedeschi

Co. B, 1st Bn., 104th Avn. Regt., Pennsylvania ARNG, Collegeville, Pa.

Jan. 28, 2006, over Kosovo

An AH-64A Apache heads south after taking off from Camp Bondsteel across a cold winter landscape o



[illegible] return with his unit from deploym

[illegible] Regt., mans his mach

[illegible] Mich.

[illegible] Kyrow of AH-64D Longbow heli

[illegible] Regt., takes off the Muthanna C

[illegible] of a CH-47 Chinook hel

[illegible] helicopters return from Fo

[illegible] turns to COB Speich

[illegible] weather in Kosovo, fog rolls in wh