We are very fortunate that the Omni Corpus Christi Hotel suffered very minimal damage during Hurricane Harvey last week. We are currently in the midst of transitioning from our hurricane preparedness mode back to normal operating status. We are currently housing disaster relief teams and assessing our room inventory for damage, most of which is just minor water damage that has already been corrected.

We truly value your business and realize you have a choice for accommodations when traveling to Corpus Christi. Thank you for your continued business. If you need assistance of any kind, please call any one of the fine hospitality professionals we have on staff, and we will be happy to be of service to you and your attendees. We look forward to welcoming you to our beautiful hotel in October!

Sincerely,

Blanche C. Morris
